

SCHOOL VIOLENCE PREVENTION DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM

RESPONSIBILITY GRID

By Jodi Wardlow

Activity Description

Students will use their understanding of responsibility to complete a graphic organizer. This can be done as a full group on the board, or by individual students. The graphic organizer can be created using online templates or using the Insert Table function in Microsoft Word.

Suggested Grade Level

K-2

Estimated Time to Complete

Less than one class period

Objectives

Students will

- list their responsibilities in various settings;
- give examples of rewards and penalties for being/not being responsible in various settings;
- indicate the person that will provide rewards or give consequences.

Materials Needed

- Graphic organizer (below)

Activity Procedures

1. Students will list a responsibility they have at home, school, and in their community.
2. They will fill in the source of that responsibility.
3. Then, they will list an incentive they have to fulfill the responsibility and a consequence that could happen if they fail to fulfill the responsibility.
